

New Jersey Council on Developmental Disabilities

Bylaws

Adopted August 12, 2021

Effective Date: January 1, 2022

ARTICLE I. NAME

- A. The name of this body shall be the New Jersey State Council on Developmental Disabilities.

ARTICLE II. AUTHORIZATION

- A. The Council is authorized under the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act (DD Rights Act), P.L. 106-402, as subsequently amended and numbered.
- B. State authorization of the Council is under P.L. 1979, chapter 105, as amended.
- C. For the purpose of complying with the provisions of Article V, Section IV, paragraph 1 of the New Jersey Constitution, the State Council on Developmental Disabilities is allocated within the Department of Human Services, but, notwithstanding said allocation, the Council shall be independent of any supervision or control by the department or any board or officer thereof, or any other cabinet level department, board or officer thereof.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSE, MISSION AND VISION

- A. In accordance with the DD Rights Act, the purpose of the Council on Developmental Disabilities is to assure that individuals with developmental disabilities and their families participate in the design of and have access to needed community services, individualized supports, and other forms of assistance that promote self-determination, independence, productivity, integration and inclusion in all facets of life through culturally competent programs.
- B. Consistent with its purpose, the mission of the Developmental Disabilities Councils, according to federal law, is to engage in advocacy, capacity building and systemic change activities that contribute to a coordinated, consumer- and family-centered, consumer-and family-directed comprehensive system that includes needed community services, individualized supports, and other forms of assistance that promote self-determination for individuals with developmental disabilities and their families.

- C. The Vision of the NJ Council on Developmental Disabilities is that all individuals with developmental disabilities are participating, equally-included members of their neighborhoods and communities; make real choices and have control over their own lives; have the freedom to strive, excel, and make mistakes; are in a position to achieve personal goals, are in a position to affect policy and process decisions that affect their lives; and have the same rights, privileges, responsibilities, and opportunities of citizenship as does any other New Jersey resident.

ARTICLE IV. DUTIES

- A. The DD Rights Act delineates the following responsibilities for Councils on Developmental Disabilities:

1. The Council shall serve as an advocate for individuals with developmental disabilities and conduct or support programs, projects, and activities that carry out the purpose of the DD Rights Act.
2. The Council shall determine annually the extent to which each goal of the Council was achieved, barriers that impeded achievement of the goal, amendments to the goals, and customer satisfaction with Council supported or conducted activities.
3. The Council shall develop a 5-Year State Plan (State Plan) and submit the State Plan to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services after obtaining assurances from the N.J. Department of Human Services that the State Plan is consistent with state law.
4. The Council shall implement the State Plan by conducting and supporting advocacy, capacity building, and systemic change activities.
5. The Council shall periodically review the New Jersey Division of Developmental Disabilities and activities sponsored by the Council carried out by the Division and make any recommendations for change to the Governor.

6. The Council shall annually prepare and transmit to the Secretary a report containing information about the progress by the Council in achieving the goals of the Council.
 7. The Council shall prepare, approve, and implement a budget.
 8. The Council shall, consistent with state law, recruit, and hire an Executive Director of the Council, should the position of Executive Director become vacant, and annually evaluate the Executive Director.
- B. The DD Rights Act states additional permissive activities of the Council.
1. The Council may support and conduct activities to assist neighborhoods and communities to respond positively to individuals with developmental disabilities and their families.
 3. The Council may support and conduct activities to promote interagency collaboration and coordination to better serve, support, assist, or advocate for individuals with developmental disabilities and their families.
 4. The Council may support and conduct activities to eliminate barriers to access and use of community services by individuals with developmental disabilities, enhance systems design and redesign, and enhance citizen participation.
 5. The Council may support and conduct activities to provide information to policymakers by supporting and conducting studies and analyses, gathering information, and developing and disseminating model policies and procedures, information, approaches, strategies, findings, conclusions, and recommendations.
 6. The Council may support and conduct, on a limited time basis, activities to demonstrate new approaches to serving individuals with developmental disabilities that are part of an overall strategy for systems change.
 7. The Council may support and conduct other advocacy, capacity building, and systemic change activities to promote the development of a coordinated, consumer- and family-centered, consumer- and family-directed, comprehensive system of community services, individualized supports, and other forms of assistance that contribute to the achievement of the purpose of the DD Rights Act.
